Sharing Jesus. Training Leaders. Serving the Community

LIT APPLICATION (Leaders In Training)

ELBC reserves the right to screen applicants for LIT to ensure that participants are aware of what is required of them, and to help maintain the overall quality of the program. LIT is designed to be a challenging, but rewarding leadership training experience.

LIT teaches servanthood, provides an experience of Christian community, facilitates the formation of lifelong friendships, and encourages young people in their faith. Participants will spend some portion of their time working as a group doing dishes, cleaning washrooms, and other 'behind the scenes' jobs. Time will also be spent daily in Bible study, discussion, leadership training, and recreational activities. ELBC is committed to discipleship. Should a person's application be unsuccessful, ELBC will endeavor to provide suitable alternatives for service and personal growth. A full refund will be given.

I have considered the matter prayerfully, and choose to submit to the authority of ELBC while I am on LIT. I understand that my services are voluntary and I choose to cooperate fully and to maximize every opportunity for personal growth. I understand that applicants are selected on the basis of attitude, character, and leadership potential. I understand that anyone demonstrating a poor attitude or a poor quality of service is subject to dismissal. I will allow pictures of myself to be used for the purpose of promoting ELBC at the discretion of the camp.
