Discipleship Camps: Making Leaders

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

God taught me that looking to Him for guidance is the first step in being a Godly leader for others. I saw a camper realize that a real person (Jesus) literally and physically died for him personally.

My son had a blast and he can't wait to go back again next year!!!!

-Katie, Parent

This summer, God really got my attention about the fact that I need to rely on Him daily for strength and wisdom; not just at camp, but throughout the year. I also saw a camper pray for the very first time in her life.

-Caryn, Cabin Leader

My girls look forward to it every year! It is good for them to get out of their comfort zone, meet new people, try new things, and even get to share their faith with others in their cabin. Memories that will last a lifetime.

-Tanya, Parent

I have never felt that God loves and wants to use me more than when I'm at camp. I have never experienced a loving community like ELBC, and when I think back on the summer it makes me earnestly strive for more in my current spiritual life and church involvement.

One camper arrived to LTS without a Bible and didn't seem too bothered about any of the 'God stuff', However, by the second week he was engaging in the Bible talks and asking honest questions. At teen camp, his Bible was full of page markers. I think of the summer and all of what ELBC means to me and has done for me often, and sometimes it's enough to bring me to tears.

-Tim, Cabin Leader

Looks like the boys have started something that they are going to want to do for many, many years.

-Parent

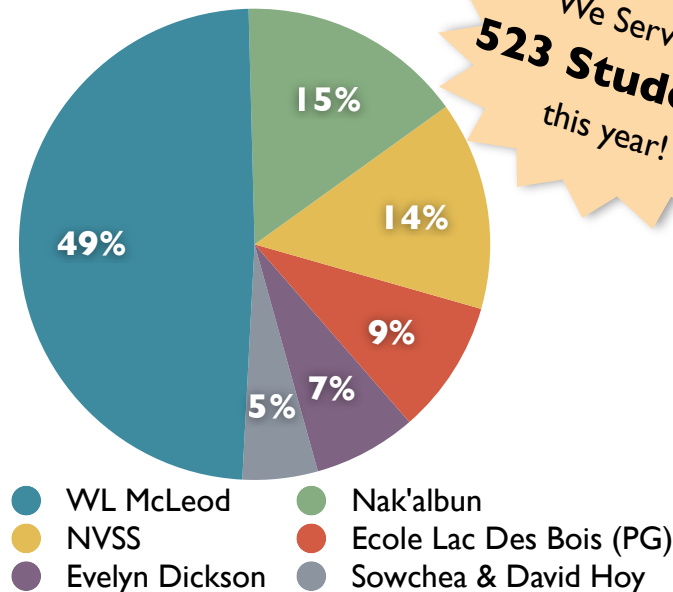

Camp provided a God-centered community where I could sense God close beside me, I learned to rely more on His strength, rather than my own. #TakeMeBack

I saw a camper learning that the power of Jesus is bigger than the power of sin, and that temptation will still come, but Jesus helps and guides us.
